Robin,

We understand that Glacier now intends to move to vacate for lack of notice on behalf of 13 defendants, which joined the case at different times from one another and which stand in different procedural postures (for example, 1 of the 13 has filed an appeal). As we have said, we disagree on defendants' assessment of the facts and we will oppose defendants' motion. Given the multiplicity of defendants, the factual and procedural issues, and the fact that the order was entered last year, we believe 30 days would be an appropriate time for a response brief. We have no objection to defendants' having 15 days for a reply brief. We are willing to discuss and be flexible on scheduling, within reason.

Best,

Neil

Neil,

Eight Defendants (Tomoloo Flagship, Tomoloo TC, Tomoloo DX, Tomoloo INT, Tomoloo Official, TOMOLOO INE, TOMOLOO Franchise, TOMOLOO-US) will file a motion to vacate preliminary injunction based on lack of notice under Rule 65(a).

Please let us know whether Plaintiff would agree to file a response in two weeks' time, and then a week for Defendants to file a reply.

Regards,

---
